About my video:

In Robert Frost's poem, The Road Not Taken, he tells us how he had to make a choice, and how that choice affected his life. The choice I had to make was between Dreyfoos School of the Arts or Jupiter High School. This is similar to The Road Not Taken because I have been looking as far as I can down each path, and once I make a decision I will not be able to turn back. This choice has been troubling me for the past year and I have nearly made a decision. Each of these schools has pros and cons and it was very challenging to choose between them. This choice will most definitely affect my future.
